Working with essential oils

Essential oils can be processed in different ways:

- In aroma lamps or electric oil burners (5 to 8 drops)
- In massage oils (10 drops in every 50ml massage oil)
- A footbath is particularly effective (Himalaya salt and 5 drops)
- * Hands 1 or 2 drops in the hands, keep hands in face and take deep breath
- * Tissue/cotton pad: put a drop of oil on the chakra (on/in addition to pillow)
- * Pocket / mini bottle, pendant, stone: smell to the bottle, or Pebble pendant when you need it

Warning. These products do not replace medicine and treatments that are given by a doctor or physician. The information that is given is no diagnosis and in case of doubt, always consult a doctor for advice. You are working with products that are very concentrated, so you will only have to use a little for effective use. Be sure not to put essential oil in your eyes or mucous membrane and do not use the oil on your skin undiluted. Be aware of any allergic reactions.
